PAO Discusses “Challenges to Women in 2013”

On Wednesday, March 27, Public Affairs Officer Angela Aggeler spoke to fifty students and teachers from the Faculty of Administration and Information Systems Management in Bitola on “Challenges to Women in 2013.” Drawing from the question of whether or not women today can “have it all,” Ms. Aggeler engaged the audience in a lively discussion of the history of women’s rights, and current issues, challenges and opportunities that exist for women around the world. She was joined by Lilijana Kuzmanovska, Member of Parliament of the Assembly of the Republic of Macedonia, who explained the political position of women in Macedonia and the initiatives, laws and international agreements that exist to strengthen and protect the position of women in politics in Macedonia
